Greetings lionloppers and welcome to the first newsletter of 2015. Firstly I would like to wish you all a Happy and Healthy New Year. I would also like to welcome any new members to LLUK and congratulate you on your choice of breed ;)

Lets hope 2015 is another good fluff filled year, with lots of new faces at the show table. We have lots to look forward to this year , with our new committee on board. We have our AGM at Bradford which will incorporate a little celebration..and another exciting Stock Show at Southern Champs on 3rd May so save the date! Meanwhile the first show of the year will soon be upon us at Carlisle so get those rabbits prepped folks!

Membership is still boasting healthy numbers, but there can never be too many!! Please try to encourage anyone who inquires about our wonderful breed to check out the website, club and facebook page, where all questions can be answered.

Please familiarise yourselves with the changes to the committee, who are only too happy to help ☺

Just a little reminder of the standard points for the Lionlop:

Ring size K	Points
Weight & Type	25
Coat	20
Head, crown, eye colour & ears	20
Mane	20
Colour & Pattern	10
Condition	5
TOTAL	100

HOT OFF THE PRESS!

FULL STANDARDISATION

WOW! How lucky are we? Finally after 11 years , yes 11 years of frustration, disappointment and commitment we have been granted FULL colour standardisation for the Lionlop by the BRC. So we can show our beautiful rabbits in any colour that is standardised in any other breed. This will come into effect as soon as it has been published in Fur and Feather. Notification will be put on LLUK Facebook page .

This is going to make showing much more fun and competitive...good bit of healthy competition ..lovely ☺ Hopefully this news will encourage more people to give this lovely breed a chance.

I'm sure you will all agree with me that a huge amount of thanks go to Mrs Lionlop herself , the lovely Jane Bramley. Thank you Jane for all your tireless work ,there's a lot more to it than people realise.

We will be having a little celebration at the AGM at Bradford, details of which are on the bottom page of this newsletter.

Some of the lovely colours we can look forward to seeing on the show table....

The Chocolate Point

Most of you will be aware that the Chocolate Point Lionlop was presented for standardisation at London 2014. The Breed Standards Committee have accepted the colour, so we can all look forward to seeing this beautiful colour out on the table in the summer. Well done to all who committed the time and effort to achieve this.

Haha this piece had already been added, so its staying! N she's cute!!!

Bedazzle Studs Gabby BIS

Well ...what can I say. A very unexpected win for me with Gabby my gorgeous homebred rew doe. Going to any show and coming away with a placement is always a bonus for me but to come away with BOB in the stock show and the main show at a 5* event is just the most amazing feeling. All this from someone who wasn't having "fluff" in her shed! So so proud of her. She has now been mated up , can she give me another worthy winner?....watch this space!!
P.S Many thanks to all my friends for helping me with prep on the day ☺ you know who you are xx

Congratulations Everyone

DON'T FORGET, we will be kicking off
the new show season with our first Stock
Show being held in Carlisle on March
8th, judging will be by Ros Waring.
Other show dates to follow.....

IMPORTANT

We will be holding our AGM on the Sunday morning at Bradford , meeting at the LLUK stand at 9.45 for a 10am start. It would be great to see as many as possible attend.

We will also be holding a Seminar at 1.50pm on the Sunday in front of the main rabbit stage. Our speaker will be Jane Bramley.

Please try to rally and encourage as much interest as possible.

Well happy showing peeps and see you all at Bradford I hope.

Finally...this club needs
YOU....
